Begins To-Morrow Morni

To-morrow we begin a greater Clearing Sale than St. Louis has ever known. Many factors have contributed to make this a remarkable sale.

First, our fixed and inexorable policy to sacrifice stock rather than carry it over stock-taking.

Second, the largely augmented stock of merchandise, new less than two months ago, when we opened the Barr Annex

And, added to this, the remarkable weather conditions, which have placed many manufacturers in a position where to exchange their merchandise for the ever-ready Barr cash they have made tremendous concessions.

These give our public unparalleled opportunities to purchase seasonable goods of all kinds at prices which make it positive economy to buy now.

Embroideries.

Special sale of manufacturers' short lengths of Fine Cambric, Nainsook and Swiss Embroideries; all new patterns-all perfect goods; no seconds. The handsomest and cheapest lot of Embroideries ever put on sale, will be closed out at about one-half regular price-in lengths from 2 to 34 yard pieces.
